

A Guide to Keeping in Touch with the ELAM Community

Communication Method	Who It Reaches	How It Works	Type of Information
ELAM Edge The ELAM Edge is the best source of information for alumnae. This e-newsletter is sent to all alumnae every other Thursday and contains senior-level job positions, ELAM and alumnae news, and other resources and information chosen as particularly relevant to the ELAM community.	ELAM Fellows, Alumnae and Friends	Alumnae should send information they wish shared through the ELAM Edge to elamprogram@drexel.edu	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Senior-level job positions</li> <li>ELAM news</li> <li>Alumnae news</li> <li>Relevant external resources, news, and information</li> </ul>
Email Listserv ELAM has listservs (email addresses) set up for each class and one for the entire alumnae community.	ELAM Fellows and Alumnae only	Contact us at elamprogram@drexel.edu to send a message through the listserv	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>ELAM and alumnae news and information</li> </ul>
LinkedIn https://www.linkedin.com/groups/1223747 ELAM's LinkedIn group is an excellent place to host a discussion on topics of interest, garner information and advice from the ELAM community, share alumnae news, and learn ELAM news. There are also several subgroups created for topical discussions. Note that this forum is only open to ELAM Fellows and Alumnae.	ELAM Fellows and Alumnae only	Fellows and alumnae can create their own discussions, pose their own questions, etc. We will also set up subgroups for relevant topics as requested.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Some ELAM news</li> <li>News contributed by alumnae</li> <li>Professional discussions</li> <li>Surveys and questions from ELAM and alumnae</li> </ul>
